

UNIVERSITY OF KERALA
Language Course: Additional Language-LATIN
(For B.A/B.Sc. Programme - 2022 admission onwards)
First Semester B.A/B.Sc. Examination
LT 1111.1 Language Course II
(Additional Language I)
Communication Skills in Latin
3 credits 4 hrs/week

COURSE OUTCOME

On completion of the course, the students should be able to:

1. Read and write Latin
2. Make simple ordinary conversations
3. Have the knowledge of the foundations of Latin Grammar and thereby English grammar.
4. Identify the grammatical structures and syntax of ordinary sentences in Latin.
5. Have the Knowledge of the evolution, development and spread of Latin language.
6. Have familiarity with the Zodiac signs, names of persons and celestial bodies in Latin and their influence in modern languages and communications.
7. Develop a general awareness of the regular use of Latin words, phrases and expressions which are commonly used in every day communication particularly, in English.
8. Have the knowledge of ancient as well as modern ways of communication in Latin.
9. Understand traditional English grammar and how it is indebted to Latin grammar.
10. Understanding of the great indebtedness of English words, expressions, phrases, abbreviations, etc. to Latin language.
11. Have better command over English language.

SYLLABUS
SEMESTER : I
COMMUNICATION SKILLS IN LATIN

1. J. Van Bogaert, S. J. Latin Grammar. Satya Bharati: Ranchi, 1996.
 - (a) Pronunciation of Latin words
 - (b) Declensions 1, 2 and 3
 - (c) Adjectives of the first class
 - (d) Conjugations: Active Indicative and Imperative Moods
 - (i) Irregular: Esse
 - (ii) Regular: a) Amare
 - (iii) b) Monere
 - (e) Prepositions: in, ad, cum, ex, per, ante, post, sub, sine
 - (f) Conjunctions

(g) Rules of Syntax:

- (i) R 1: Magister docet
- (ii) R 3: Cicero, orator et consul
- (iii) R 4: Magna insula
- (iv) R 5: Bonus pater et mater
- (v) R 6: Pater et mater sunt boni
- (vi) R 7: Porta murusque sunt valida
- (vii) R 8: Deus est bonus
- (viii) R 9: Urbs capta est
- (ix) R 10: Cicero creatus est consul
- (x) R 12: Liber Petri
- (xi) R 24: Pater amat ac tuetur filium
- (xii) R 35: Do vestem pauperi
- (xiii) R 50: Sum in urbe

2. J. Van Bogaert, S. J., Latin Exercises Part I. Satya Bharati: Ranchi, 2009.
 - (a) Exercises in Translation from Latin to English 1 – 14
 - (b) Exercises in Translation from English to Latin 1 - 14
3. Doug Julius. Latin Made Simple: A Complete Introductory Course in Classical Latin. The Stonesong Press, LCC: New York, 2006.
 - (a) “Romulus et Remus”
 - (b) Zodiac signs, names of persons and celestial bodies in Latin
4. Rhoda A. Hendricks. Lingua Latina Facilis Facta . Howard and Wyndham, London: 1978.
 - (a) “Italia”
 - (b) Latin words, expressions, phrases and abbreviations commonly used in English
5. V. Y., Dasappan, ed. Latin Language and World Cultures. 2013. Delhi: Media House, 2015.
 - (a) “Latin Language and World Cultures” by Dasappan V. Y.
6. Biblia Sacra Vulgata
 - (a) “Pater Noster”, Mt: 6: 5 – 15.

* * * * *

Language Course: Additional Language-LATIN
(For B.A/B.Sc.Programme - 2022 admission onwards)
Second Semester B.A/B.Sc. Examination
LT 1211.1 Language Course II
(Additional Language I)
Translation and Communication in Latin
3 credits 4 hrs/week

COURSE OUTCOME

On completion of the course, the students should be able to:

1. Translate simple sentences from Latin to English or their mother tongue
2. Translate simple sentences from English or their mother tongue to Latin.
3. Better knowledge of grammatical structures and syntax in Latin.
4. Better understanding of the etymological nuances of English words as majority of English words have their roots in Latin.
5. Knowledge of ancient as well as modern ways of communication in Latin.
6. Knowledge of the deep indebtedness of Romance languages such as French, Spanish, Italian, Portuguese, Romanian, etc. to Latin language.
7. Familiarity and better clarity of legal and administrative terms.
8. Basic knowledge and better clarity of scientific language, especially scientific terms and abbreviations.
9. Deeper insight into the rich ancient moral values and principles.
10. Knowledge of the foundations of western music.
11. Familiarity with Indian writers and thinkers in Latin.
12. Familiarity with academic degrees and terms, months and days and numbers in Latin and their influence in modern languages and communications.

Semester : 2

- a. J. Van Bogaert, S. J. Latin Grammar
 - (i) Declensions 1 – 5
 - (ii) Adjectives of the First and Second class
 - (iii) Conjugations: Active Indicative Mood
 - (i) Irregular: Esse and Posse
 - (ii) Regular: a) Regere
 - (iii) Regular: b) Audire
 - (iv) Adverbs
 - (v) Numerals: 1 - 50
 - (vi) Prepositions
 - (vii) Rules of Syntax: Syntactical Rules 2, 45, 52 and 54.

- b. J. Van Bogaert, S. J., Latin Exercises: 15 – 20
- c. Lingua Latina Facilis Facta by Rhoda A. Hendricks. Published by Howard and Wyndham, London: 1978.
 - (a) Academic degrees and terms
 - (b) months, days and numbers in Latin
- d. Cambridge Latin Course. Great Britain, Cambridge University Press 1993.
 - a. Caecilius,
 - b. In Villa,
 - c. Mercator,
 - d. In Triclinio,
 - e. In Foro,
 - f. Venalicius,
 - g. Hermogenes,
 - h. In Basilica,
 - i. In Theatro,
 - j. Actores,
 - k. Poppaea.
- e. V. Y., Dasappan, ed. Latin Language and World Cultures. 2013. Delhi: Media House, 2015.
 - a. The influence Latin on English language and administration by Prof. P. L. Josey.
 - b. “Latin Choral Music” by Jerry Amaldev.

Language Course: Additional Language-LATIN
(For B.A/B.Sc.Programme - 2022 admission onwards)
Third Semester B.A/B.Sc. Examination
LT 1311.1 Language Course II
(Additional Language I)
Literature in Latin
3 credits 5 hrs/week

COURSE OUTCOME

On completion of the course, the students should be able to:

1. Better knowledge of grammatical structures and syntax in Latin.
2. Deeper understanding of the etymological nuances of English words as majority of English words have their roots in Latin.
3. Greater interest in ancient languages as well as modern languages.
4. Familiarity with Latin construction of sentences which are pithy and pregnant in meaning.
5. Better knowledge of ancient orators, writers, poets, dramatists, religious writers, social thinkers and the great contributions they made in history.
6. Familiarity with some of the world famous ancient orations and quotations in Latin.
7. A general awareness of the great influence of Latin literature on Western culture and literature.
8. Familiarity with some of the ancient inscriptions, edicts, letters and mottoes in Latin.
9. Knowledge of the great influence of Latin myths and legends on world literature.
Students also acquire knowledge of the similarity of mythical characters in various cultures.
10. Deeper insight into the rich ancient moral values and principles.
11. Familiarity with Indian writers and poets in Latin.

Semester : 3 : Literature in Latin

1. J. Van Bogaert, S. J. Latin Grammar. Satya Bharati: Ranchi, 1996.
 - a. Declensions
 - b. Adjectives of the First and Second class
 - c. Pronouns:
 - (i) Personal Pronouns
 - (ii) Possessive Pronouns
 - (iii) Relative Pronouns
 - d. Conjugations:

- (i) Active Indicative Mood
- (ii) Active Imperative Mood
- (iii) Regular and Irregular Conjugations

- e. Interjections
- f. Numerals
- g. Prepositions
- h. Rules of Syntax
 - (i) R 11
 - (ii) R 16
 - (iii) R 17
 - (iv) R 18
 - (v) R 19
 - (vi) R 20
 - (vii) R 37
 - (viii) R 39
 - (ix) R 55

- 2. Publius Vergilius Maro (Virgil):
 - a. Aeneid Book I : 450 – 465.
- 3. St. Augustinus, Confessiones
 - a. Liber 10, capita 26 et 27
- 4. Biblia Sacra Vulgata
 - a. Song of Solomon: Chapter 2: 10 - 17
- 5. Lenthaparambil:
 - a. “Erubescit Aqua”
- 6. J. Van Bogaert, S. J., Latin Exercises Part II. Satya Bharati: Ranchi, 2009.
 - a. Cervus apud Fontem (Page No: 113).

● * * * * *

Language Course: Additional Language-LATIN
(For B.A/B.Sc.Programme - 2022 admission onwards)

Fourth Semester B.A/B.Sc. Examination

LT 1411.1 Language Course II

(Additional Language I)

CULTURE AND CIVILISATION IN LATIN

3 credits 5 hrs/week

COURSE OUTCOME

On completion of the course, the students should be able to:

1. Deeper knowledge of grammatical structures and syntax in Latin.
2. Better Knowledge of the great influence of Latin myths and legends on world literature. Students also acquire deeper knowledge of the similarity of mythical characters in various cultures.
3. Greater interest in ancient languages as well as modern languages.
4. Better knowledge of ancient religious traditions, terms, rituals and practices.
5. Familiarity with some of the rich ancient western musical traditions and hymns.
6. Interest for further study and research into Indo-European family of languages.
7. Knowledge of the influence of Latin language, myths, legends, phrases and expressions on modern culture, literature and communication, including visual arts.
8. Deeper insight into the rich ancient moral values and principles.
9. Greater insight into ancient western culture and civilizations.

Semester : 4

1. J. Van Bogaert, S. J. Latin Grammar. Satya Bharati: Ranchi, 1996.
 - a. Declensions, Adjectives and Pronouns
 - b. Regular and Irregular Conjugations
 - c. Numerals
 - d. Prepositions
 - e. Rules of Syntax:
 - i. 30
 - ii. 56
 - iii. 57
 - iv. 58
 - v. 59
 - vi. 60.
2. V. Y., Dasappan, ed. Latin Language and World Cultures. 2013. Delhi: Media House, 2015.
 - a. "English Literature in its Latin Context" by Earl.
3. Cicero, Select Orations edited by Benjamin L. D'Ooge

- Citizen and Citizenship
- Popular Assemblies
- The Senate
- Civil Magistrate
- Law and Courts
- Religious Affairs

4. Jason and the Golden Fleece – Page 45: Latin: A Fresh Approach Book 3 by Mike Seigel.

● * * * * *

Language Course: Additional Language-LATIN

(2022 admission onwards)

First Semester B.A/B.Sc./B. Com. (Career related) Examination

LT 1111.1 Language Course II

(Additional Language I)

Communication Skills in Latin

3 credits 5 hrs/week

COURSE OUTCOME

On completion of the course, the students should be able to:

1. Read and write Latin
2. Make simple ordinary conversations in Latin
3. Have familiarity with the Zodiac signs, names of persons and celestial bodies in Latin and their influence in modern languages and communications.
4. Develop a general awareness of the regular use of Latin words, phrases and expressions which are commonly used in every day communication particularly, in English.
5. Understand the great indebtedness of scientific words, expressions, phrases, abbreviations, etc. to Latin language.
6. Familiar with the scientific terms, particularly nomenclature in the study of Botany, zoology and other branches of science.

SYLLABUS

SEMESTER : I

COMMUNICATION SKILLS IN LATIN

1. Jean, A. Latin Grammar. Trichinopoly: St. Joseph's Press, 1958.
 - a. Pronunciation of Latin words
 - b. Inflection
 - c. Parts of speech in Latin
 - d. Gender, Number and Case in Latin
 - e. Declensions 1, 2 and 3
 - f. Adjectives of the first class
 - g. Conjugations: Active Indicative and Imperative Moods
 - i. Irregular: Esse
 - ii. Regular: a) Laudare
 - iii. b) Docere
 - h. Prepositions: in, ad, cum, ex, per, ante, post, sub, sine
 - i. Conjunctions
 - j. Rules of Syntax:
 - (i) R 1: Dominus deus; Domini dei
 - (ii) R 2: Libri discipulorum
 - (iii) R 3: Rosae pulchrae; impigri discipuli; sancta templa
 - (iv) R 4: Tu legis; nos scribimus; petrus cantat; Paulus et Jacobus ludunt.
 - (v) R 6: Aves, quae volitant in aere, sunt pulcherimae
 - (vi) R 7: Amo deum; magister pueros hortatus est.
2. J. Van Bogaert, S. J., Latin Exercises Part I. Satya Bharati: Ranchi, 2009.
 - (a) Exercises in Translation from Latin to English 1 – 14
 - (b) Exercises in Translation from English to Latin 1 - 14
3. Doug Julius. Latin Made Simple: A Complete Introductory Course in Classical Latin. The Stonesong Press, LCC: New York, 2006.
 - (a) "Proserpina"
 - (b) Zodiac signs, names of persons and celestial bodies in Latin
 - (c) Latin words, expressions, phrases and abbreviations commonly used in English
4. Smith, Minnie L. et Thompson, Harold G. First year Latin. Boston Allyn and Bacon, Inc. 1964.
 - (a) "Duo Amici"
5. V. Y., Dasappan, ed. Latin Language and World Cultures. 2013. Delhi: Media House, 2015.
 - (a) "Latin Language and World Cultures" by Dasappan V. Y.
6. Biblia Sacra Vulgata
 - (a) Psalmus 91, 1-16
 - (b) "Pater Noster", Mt: 6: 5 – 15.

Language Course: Additional Language-LATIN (2022 admission onwards)

Second Semester B.A./B.Sc./B. Com. (Career related) Examination

LT 1111.1 Language Course II

(Additional Language I)

TRANSLATION AND COMMUNICATION IN LATIN

3 credits 5 hrs/week

Second Semester

COURSE OUTCOME

On completion of the course, the students should be able to:

1. Translate simple sentences from Latin to English or their mother tongue.
2. Translate simple sentences from English or their mother tongue to Latin.
3. Understand the etymological nuances of English words as majority of English words have their roots in Latin.
4. Recognize the deep indebtedness of Romance languages such as French, Spanish, Italian, Portuguese, Romanian, etc. to Latin language.
5. Recognize the rich ancient moral values and principles.
6. Have familiarity with academic degrees and terms, months and days and numbers in Latin and their influence in modern languages and communications.
7. Have familiarity with ancient religious traditions, terms, rituals and practices.
8. Understand the influence of Latin for serious research in scientific studies, including studies on the flora and fauna of mother earth like Van Rheed's Hortus Malabaricus

SYLLABUS

1. Jean, A. Latin Grammar. Trichinopoly: St. Joseph's Press, 1958.
 - (a) Declensions 1-5
 - (b) Adjectives of the second class
 - (c) Conjugations: Active Indicative and Imperative Moods
 - (i) Irregular: Volo, Nolo
 - (ii) Regular: a) Regere
b) Audire
 - (d) Prepositions
 - (e) Conjunctions
2. J. Van Bogaert, S. J., Latin Exercises Part I. Satya Bharati: Ranchi, 2009.
 - (a) Exercises in Translation from Latin to English 21 - 25
 - (b) Exercises in Translation from English to Latin 21 - 25
3. Lingua Latina Facilis Facta by Rhoda A. Hendricks. Published by Howard and Wyndham, London: 1978.

- (a) Academic degrees and terms
- (b) months, days and numbers in Latin
- 4. Mike Siegel. Latin a fresh approach book 3. Wimbledon publishing company, London, 2002.
 - (a) "Perseus et Medusa"
 - (b) "Ulixes domum post bellum rediit"
- 5. V. Y., Dasappan, ed. Latin Language and World Cultures. 2013. Delhi: Media House, 2015.
 - (a) "Latin: The Universal Language of the Church" by Archbishop M. Soosa Pakiam
- 6. J. Van Bogaert, S. J., Latin Exercises Part II. St. Alberts College: Ranchi, 1990.
 - (a) "Asinus pelle leonis indutus"
- 7. Hortus Malabaricus

UNIVERSITY OF KERALA

(2022 admission onwards)

Language Course: Additional Language-LATIN

(For B.Com Programme)

First Semester B.Com. Examination

LT 1111.2 Language Course II

(Additional Language I)

Communication Skills in Latin

3 credits 5 hrs/week

First Semester

COURSE OUTCOME

(On completion of the course, the students should be able to):

The students acquire the skill to:

1. Read and write Latin
2. Make simple ordinary conversations in Latin
3. Have familiarity with the Zodiac signs, names of persons and celestial bodies in Latin and their influence in modern languages and communications.
4. Develop a general awareness of the regular use of Latin words, phrases and expressions which are commonly used in every day communication particularly, in commerce and trade.
5. Understand the great indebtedness of legal words, expressions, phrases, abbreviations, etc. to Latin language.

SYLLABUS

1. Henley, Robert J. Latin, Chicago: Loyola University Press, 1958.
 - A. Part I: Forms
 - (a) Pronunciation of Latin words
 - (b) Wishes in Latin
 - (c) Division of syllables
 - (d) Quantity of Syllables
 - (e) Declensions and Conjugations (Indicative and Imperative) 1, 2 and 3
 - (f) Adjectives Magnus-a-um
 - (g) Prepositions: in, ad, cum, ex, per, ante, post, sub, sine
 - (h) Conjunctions
 - B. Part II : Syntax
 - (i) 460- 461 : Caesar Gallum interfecit; Deus est bonus

- (ii) 464 -466 : Multi homines; Pater meus
- (iii) 470 : Deus est
- (iv) 473 : Christus rex est.
- (v) 474 : vita brevis est
- (vi) 475 : Pater et filia mortui sunt
- (vii) 477 : miles fortis pugnat.

2. Cambridge Latin Course. Great Britain, Cambridge University Press 1993.

a. Stage 7

- i. Cena
- ii. Fabula Mirabilis
- iii. Dicens
- iv. Post cenam

3. P.H. Collin, Law Dictionary, universal Book Stall, New Delhi

a. Legal Terms from Latin

4. V. Y., Dasappan, ed. Latin Language and World Cultures. 2013. Delhi: Media House, 2015.

(a) "Latin Language and World Cultures" by Dasappan V. Y.

5. Biblia Sacra Vulgata

(a) Mt: 6: 5 – 15.

(b) Mt 25:14–30

UNIVERSITY OF KERALA

(2022 admission onwards)

Language Course: Additional Language-LATIN

(For B.Com Programme)

Second Semester B. Com. Examination

LT 1211.2 Language Course II

(Additional Language I)

TRANSLATION AND COMMUNICATION IN LATIN

3 credits 5 hrs/week

COURSE OUTCOME

On completion of the course, the students should be able to:

1. Translate simple sentences from Latin to English or their mother tongue.
2. Translate simple sentences from English or their mother tongue to Latin.
3. Understand the etymological nuances of English words as majority of English words have their roots in Latin.
4. Recognize the deep indebtedness of Romance languages such as French, Spanish, Italian, Portuguese, Romanian, etc. to Latin language.
5. Identify the legal and administrative terms which are in Latin.
6. Recognize the rich ancient moral values and principles.
7. Have familiarity with academic degrees and terms, months and days and numbers in Latin and their influence in modern languages and communications.

SYLLABUS

1. Henley, Robert J. Latin, Chicago: Loyola University Press, 1958.
 - (a) Declensions 1-5
 - (b) Adjectives of the second class
 - (c) Conjugations: Active Indicative and Imperative Moods
 - (i) Irregular: Volo, Nolo
 - (ii) Regular: a) Regere
 - (iii) b) Audire
 - (d) Prepositions
 - (e) Conjunctions
2. Cook, A.M & Pantin W.E.P., Macmillan's Latin Course Second Part. London: Macmillan and Co. Ltd, 1948
 - a. Insanus Medicus (XXIV)
 - b. Sertorius (XXXV)

3. J. Van Bogaert, S. J., Latin Exercises Part I. Satya Bharati: Ranchi, 2009.
 - (a) Exercises in Translation from Latin to English 10-20
 - (b) Exercises in Translation from English to Latin 10-20
4. Lingua Latina Facilis Facta by Rhoda A. Hendricks. Published by Howard and Wyndham, London: 1978.
 - (a) Academic degrees and terms
 - (b) months, days and numbers in Latin
5. V. Y., Dasappan, ed. Latin Language and World Cultures. 2013. Delhi: Media House, 2015.
 - (a) The influence Latin on English language and administration BY Prof. P. L. Josey
6. Biblia Sacra Vulgata
 - (a) Mt 18:21-35